

The Performing Arts Society

was established in 1974.

It provides a platform for the budding talents in the fields of music and dance and other performing arts. Its programmes present an amalgamation of amateur and professional artists. Maestros like the

Late Ustad Allah Rakha, Ustad Zakir Hussain, Pandit Shiv Kumar Sharma, and several well-known playback singers like that of

Kavita Krishnamuthy, Udit Narayan, Kumar Shanu, Bali Brahmabhat, Pinaz

Masani, Shaan, Illa Arun, Preetiyand Pinky, Aryan Vaid and Reshma Bombaywala

have performed and enthralled the audiences under the auspices of PAS.

The activities of the society begin with inaugural event Sargam, followed by Talent Parade which is a dancing and singing event. 'Serenade' an interesting, humour laced activity in which society plays the Cupid by providing young ones the opportunity to express their feeling in the most hilarious ways, besides students dedicates their appreciations of proessors with sher-o-shaeri . It also organises an intercollegiate fashion show, 'Enchante', besides events like Antakshri and JAM are also organised by the Society.

On 14th Nov. We started our journey with a bang! We went to Balbhavan, Charni Road, to spend quality time with the inmates. We distributed chocolates, biscuits and Idlis to them. It was followed by interaction day-to-day living of these disadvantaged children, which was followed by singing songs and dancing, mimicry etc. to rejoice them. Since then a few fellows from among us keep visiting them.

On 17th Nov we took up another social cause which is so close to our Honorable Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi - Swachh Bharat Abhiyan; as a mark of respect to him. 'That day we , along with the Prof. in Charge cleaned up the whole of Churchgate Railway Station, just imagine it! We offered roses to daily commuters to make them know that new generations will never let go of these essential values. Besides, we offered sweets to the Safai Karmcharis, thanked them for the daily grind they go through every day to keep our surroundings clean. They were very happy and it was really a fulfilling experience for us. This event was organised along with 'Sakal 'the Marathi Daily. Our Principal, Dr. Anna Saheb Khemnar was really glad and proud to see the students giving priority to social causes he encouraged us to keep up with working for social causes.
