Webinar on ‘De-stress with Music’

organised by IQAC in collaboration with Department of English

Date: Oct 10, 2020

Report

IQAC in collaboration with Department of English organised a webinar on ‘De-stress with Music’ on Oct 10, 2020 on the occasion of World Mental Health Day. The seminar was attended by students and faculty, too. IQAC Coordinator welcomed the Principal, Resource person, and the participants attending the webinar. Dr. Radhika Iyer, Dept. of Commerce, In her introductory speech, explained innovative activities and practices, dept. of English and IQAC are conducting throughout the year. It was a unique initiative of IQAC to conduct seminar on such a topic. Resource person for the Seminar was Prof. Mahendra Telgote, Head Dept. of English. He has multifaceted personality, he is a composer, poet, writer and a singer.

Dr. Mahendra Telgote, in his interactive session, explained and demonstrated the role of music in soothing the mind and overcoming stress. He explained how Music can have a profound effect on both the emotions and the body. Music can make one feel happy and spirited. A slower song can quiet listener’s mind and relax the muscles, making him/her feel soothed. Music is effective for relaxation and stress management. He stated that people, who like singing and listening music, have a happy state of mind. They, in most cases, are seen joyous. Prof. Mahendra, who has a melodies voice, sang some lines from olden Hindi film songs and observed the reaction of the listeners. He sang “Rimjhim gire sawan” written by Yogesh composed by R. D. Burman and sung by Kishore Kumar. The participants liked the singing and session became musical. He also motivated some participants to sing some songs. Some participants also sang beautifully. Every one, including, singers and listeners experienced the joy. They forgot about the worldly stress and felt relaxed. Prof. Mahendra quoted that "listening to music seems to be able to change brain functioning to the same extent as medication." They noted that music is something that almost anybody can access and makes it an easy stress reduction tool. The entire session was enjoyed by the participants. Question answers session was handled by Prof. Atul Dhabale, Dept. of Economics. Dr. M. S. Loni proposed formal vote of thanks.
